March 31, 1912.
Having bought a bottle of Mackey's Liniment of Miss Tooley and tried it for Rheumatism on myself, found it all that was needed. I will recommend it to any one for such troubles or neuralgia.

MRS. M. M. HENDERSON.

Dear Sir: I have used only one bottle of Mackey's Liniment during the illness of my wife with the influenza disease and I must say that it brought her through safely.

MR. and Mrs. NEWTON MCGHEE.

ST. JOSEPH, MO.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Bryan entertained their 14th wedding anniversary with a dinner New Year's day. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Williams and Mrs. Elmer Hendricks and Miss A. Mitchell of Atchison, Kansas. Mrs. Anna Saunders and her daughter, Mrs. Sadie Johnson were visitors of their brother and uncle while in this city. They left Friday morning for Des Moines, Ia., to visit a sister and niece that live there. They expect to visit a week there and return to Chillicothe, Mo. Mrs. Ransom the President of the What-so-ever Society gave an open house entertainment at Mrs. Payne's residence, 8th avenue and Pendleton street for the benefit of its members and friends. She realized about $12.00. Mrs. Anna Renfro, one of the daughters of the Abyssinian Tabernacle and Phoenix Temple died January 2nd at Knox hospital. The funeral services were held at 19th and Sylvan New Hope Baptist church. A great number of the members were in attendance. Rev. Tally officiated. The Quarterly meeting held at Holsey Chapel, 18th and Beattie streets was well attended. Rev. S. E. Maloney preached the sacramental sermon with the power of the Holy Ghost. PITTSBURG, KANSAS.

A few words from this city. Christmas and New Year services in the A. M. E. church were well attended. Officers, members, friends and relatives gave the pastor's wife a turkey and a host of other things with a handsome purse. So they were a happy couple. The pastor's wife was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Ferrell to a Christmas dinner. They had a fine goose and all the things that go with it. Miss V. M. Jackson, Mr. Everett, Miss Smallwood, Mr. Brown and Miss Roberson have returned to the city from their vacation to begin their school work. The Sunday school is increasing each week. Sunday was a high day in Bethel, the pastor and wife presented the church with an individual communion set for its New Year's present. Mrs. Bertha Bass of Allen Chapel, Kansas City, Mo., joined the church Sunday. Both sermons were grand. Our Second Quarterly Meeting will be held by our new Presiding Elder, J. D. Barksdale, D. D. on the 3rd Sunday in this month.

NILE QUEEN

Kashmir Chemical Co. Springfield, Ill.
Gentlemen: Your hair preparations have done wonders for my hair and skin. I find, nearly every thing I clean my complexion of pimples, liver spots and blackheads without succeeding, until I found Kashmir's Nile Queen. Now my skin is as smooth and lovely as can be and my hair has grown so long and glossy my friends all admire it. I wish all our women would try Nile Queen.
Very truly yours,
